Become an Inclusive Employer

Unlock potential, enrich your workplace, make a difference.

At Kisharon Langdon, we support people with learning disabilities and autistic people into meaningful employment through our dedicated Employment Programme.

We work in partnership with employers to create successful, sustainable job opportunities that benefit both the individual and the business.

Apart from having a home, having a job is what the people we support want most in life. Employment offers purpose, routine, independence and a source of income. With the right support, we believe all our members can work and thrive.

Why employ someone supported by Kisharon Langdon?

1. Strengthen your Corporate Social Responsibility and EDI commitments

Demonstrate genuine commitment to Equality, Diversity and Inclusion while making a positive social impact in your community.

2. Gain a motivated and loyal employee

Our members are highly motivated, take pride in their work and are genuinely grateful for the opportunity to be part of your team.

3. Benefit from a more diverse workplace

Diversity brings fresh perspectives, improves workplace culture and helps teams grow in understanding, empathy and collaboration.

4. Receive ongoing expert support at no cost to you. We provide:

- Tailored advice and training for managers and colleagues
- Ongoing support to help your employee succeed in their role
- Practical guidance to ensure both you and the employee get the best from the experience

Where needed, a support staff member can accompany the individual to help them settle into their role and build confidence and independence over time.

Trusted by employers across many sectors

We currently support our members in employment at a wide range of organisations, including:

- ▶ Nurseries and high street retailers
- ▶ Hilton Hotels (Central London)
- ▶ The Grove Hotel, Watford
- ▶ Chopstix restaurant outlets
- ▶ Stretton's
- ▶ NHS hospitals and care homes
(including training delivery roles)

...and many more.

It goes without saying that everyone is different but employing someone neurodivergent has enriched our lives and shown us what a huge benefit it has been to us personally and to Grunberg & Co., they have been quite simply the model employee.

Sara Dorey

Associate Director, Grunberg & Co Chartered Accountants

When I took on someone supported by the charity, I thought I was doing Kisharon Langdon a favour, but Kisharon Langdon has done me a favour as I watch members develop into independent adults, go on their journey of discovery and uncover talents that would otherwise have gone unnoticed.
